HAVE CROSSED TAITSE RIVER

Oyama's Forces Make an Advance

PREPARE FOR BIG FIGHT

Which is Likely to Take Place at Yen-tai Coal Mines--Russians Have Strong Position.

Tokio, Sept. 3.—It is believed that Field Marshal Oyama succeeded in crossing the Taitse river this morning with the main body of the Japanese army. The Russians appear to be concentrating in the neighborhood of the Yen-tai coal mines and it is likely that the main fight will occur there. The neighborhood is full of hills and small passes, where the Russians might readily take a stand and be in a position to repel Japanese assaults.

"ENEMY CONTINUES TO RETREAT."

Oyama Sends Out a Statement of the Situation.

London, Sept. 3.—The Japanese legation gives out the following this morning from field marshal Oyama:

The enemy in front of our left and central armies continues to retreat to the right bank of the Taitse except that portion which occupied the defense works from the south to the northeast of Liao Yang and the heights northwest of Miao-chang. Our armies continuing the attack on the right side of the river, occupied the height west of Hsien-lung on the morning of Sept. 2. On Sept. 3 the remainder were routed, enemy still offering some resistance outside of Liao Yang. Our centre and left armies are attacking.

COMMUNICATION IS CUT.

St. Petersburg Doesn't Hear from Liao Yang.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3.—The War department announces that communication with Liao Yang has been cut. Great anxiety prevails here.

A Japanese Capture.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3.—A despatch from Kuropatkin dated yesterday says, "Japanese assaulted and captured the position near Skywanton during the night. This morning the Russians began preparations to retake the position. Advance against Kuroki also began which was met by strong rifle fire from the Japanese center."

The attempt by the Japanese to capture Liao Yang railway station was repulsed with great loss.

THROWN INTO CONFUSION.

Oyama Presses Fleeing Russians as They Cross the Taitse.

Tokyo, Sept. 3.—The Russians began to retreat on the right center from Liao-yang early on Thursday. They were thrown into great confusion while attempting to cross to the right bank of the Taitse river. The Japanese, pursuing them vigorously, captured a number of Russian 102 centimeter cannon, which they used to shell the Liao-yang railway station.

Field Marshal Oyama's right attacked a heavy force of Russians in the vicinity of Hsien-lung, twelve miles northeast of Liao-yang, at 11 o'clock on Thursday. His left began at dawn on Friday pressing the Russians toward Taitse. It is thought that he will severely punish the Russians.

The chief of staff of the center Japanese army, General Nodan, has reported that the Japanese center was continuing to advance, with the object of taking a line from Shih-shien to Liao-yang and effecting a junction with the Japanese left, commanded by General Oku.

It is reported here that a conflagration is raging at Liao-yang.

The Japanese casualties in the Liao-yang engagements have not yet been ascertained officially, but it is announced that they will not exceed 10,000.

TO FORCE MEAT FAMINE

Donnelly's Plan to Bring Packers to Terms.

INDEPENDENTS TO SUFFER

Determined to Make Great Contest Between Capital and Labor a Fight to a Finish.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—"A meat famine will be forced at all costs. It is the best weapon with which to fight the trust packers, although it may not be welcomed by the independents."

In these words President Donnelly of the Butchers' national organization has declared a boycott against all meat and announced that union men will quit in all packing establishments regardless of where live stock is secured. Donnelly's announcement was made at the conclusion of a meeting of the Allied Trades' conference board.

The executive board of the Retail Meat Dealers' association of Chicago had just been in conference with Mr. Donnelly and his associates, having come to ask certain concessions for the independent packers and to seek authority to attempt to bring about a meeting between the packers and representatives of the strikers.

By ignoring these latest attempts at peace and by adopting such an aggressive step the strike leaders have demonstrated their intention to make it a fight to a finish.

$1,000,000 FIRE LOSS.

City of Memphis, Tenn., Had Big Fire Today.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 3.—Fire this morning burned the buildings occupied by the Oliver Fanny Grocery Co., John A. Denny & Co., Wayne Love & Co., W. C. Early, Behr & Co. and the Memphis Paper Co. It is believed the loss will be $1,000,000.

GOVERNOR HAD RELAPSE.

Vermont's Chief Executive Has Serious Illness.

Bennington, Sept. 2.—Within the past few days Gov. McCullough has suffered a relapse but today was resting more comfortably and his ultimate recovery is looked for. However, unless he improves at a more rapid rate than he has for the past short time, it is doubtful if he is able to attend the coming session of legislature.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

The banks will close all day Monday.

The last meeting of the board of civil authority for the purpose of correcting the check list to be used at the freemen's meeting will be held in the school house at West Berlin Saturday afternoon and evening.

A new twenty ton steel bridge has recently been placed over the stream near the intercity hall grounds where the Barre-Montpelier road crosses it. New and much heavier abutments were put in both for the town bridge and the trolley road, which will put in a steel bridge also. A. E. Covell, one of the selectmen, had charge of the work.

LAST WORD POLITICALLY

Republicans and Democrats Make Statements

ON TUESDAY'S ELECTION

All Voters of City Are Urged to be at The Polls and Cast Their Ballots.

Both the Republican and Democratic city committees use space in today's paper. You should read both sides.

WHY THE VOTERS

Should Support G. Herbert Pape For City Representative.

Mr. Pape not only has the courage to stand by his honest convictions but he has the ability to present them and defend them.

Mr. Pape's public and private life needs no defense.

Mr. Pape believes in a fair and honorable campaign, giving his political adversaries all the respect he should reserve from them.

Mr. Pape was a member of the Joint Committee on Temperance, the Joint Committee on Rules, the Joint Committee on the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and the General Committee. The Democratic Representatives from Barre during the last three sessions of the Legislature have held more important committee appointments than were held by the three preceeding Republican Representatives from Barre.

Mr. Pape's record.

He, as a member of the General Committee, reported favorably the weekly payment bill to the House and after opposition had developed he made an able speech in favor of the bill which passed the House by a vote of 178 to 8.

He was an ardent supporter of a bill making nine hours a legal day's work in Vermont.

He aided in the passage of the bill setting aside $15,000 of the state school tax to be apportioned among the cities and towns of the state, thus securing for Barre City an additional $776.89 for school expenditures.

He opposed in a forcible speech a bill to increase the state highway tax from 5 cents to 10 cents which if it had become a law would have cost the city of Barre $1,800.

He rendered the city an inestimable service in his work on the City Charter Revision bill, for he and he alone fought successfully against the representatives from the surrounding towns and secured for Barre City rights and privileges which were absolutely necessary to her growth and expansion.

VOTE FOR PAPE.

WHY THE VOTERS

Should Support Eli H. Porter, the Democratic Nominee for Governor.

The candidate of the farmer, the laboring man, the tax payer and the believer in local option.

Eli H. Porter of Wilmington, the Democratic candidate for governor, is a typical representative of young Vermont. Progressive, aggressive, plucky, for the right, frank, big hearted, absolutely honest and true. In executive ability, in legislative experience, in all those qualities of mind and heart that go to make up a man fitted to be the chief executive of the commonwealth,—Eli H. Porter will not suffer in comparison with any of his political adversaries.

He served in the legislature for his town in the sessions of 1892, 1900 and 1902, and in every session he was accounted as one of the leaders of the House.

In the legislature of 1892 he, together with Hon. T. J. Boynton, drafted the license bill for that session, for which Clement had the credit, and they led the gallant fight for it that year.

He was the only speaker in the House against the Salary Grab Bill of 1900 which was defeated by his scathing exposure of it.

He has always been a sturdy advocate for the retrenchment of all outrageous state expenses, and fought hard in the last legislature for the Democratic bill which provided for a reduction of two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars in state expenses, but which the Republican party voted down.

VOTE FOR PORTER.

He introduced in the last legislature, and almost carried against all the powers of the ring, the bill to impose additional and just taxation on co-operations to the amount of one hundred and eighty thousand and seventy-six dollars and 15 cents, which if it could have passed with the other Democratic measures reducing expenses, would have meant a difference of between four and five dollars a year for every average Vermont family.

He served in the legislature of 1902 as the chairman of the general committee, and was a member of the committee on final adjournment, on rules and on banks, and was the Democratic candidate for speaker of the House that year receiving a large number of votes more than the Democratic representation in the House. He opposed a bill, supported by nearly all the lawyers and politicians, to boost the salaries of the supreme court judges up to four thousand dollars a year, and in a telling speech defeated it.

He was chairman of the general committee which considered the weekly payment bill which sent to the House a unanimous favorable report upon the same, and he was a warm advocate of it when it came before the House. It was this same committee, of which Mr. Porter was chairman, that reported favorably on the bill to make nine hours a legal day's work in Vermont. All the bills introduced in the House for the benefit of the laboring man found a hearty support in Mr. Porter.

Perhaps one of the best attributes ever given Mr. Porter was given by the St. Albans Messenger, a leading Republican newspaper, in its issue of June 23, 1904, which said, "Eli H. Porter is known far and wide in Vermont as a clean man, a good citizen, a safe and responsible public servant, a conservative law maker, and it is only because he is a Democrat in an overwhelmingly Republican state that higher political honors than he has already enjoyed have not come to him. The Vermont Democracy is to be congratulated upon having selected him for its standard bearer."

THE CAMPAIGN CLOSES

And Republican Success Is Assured.

The political campaign which is now closing has in the main been a clean one. All parties have placed upon the stump the ablest and most eloquent exponents of their respective views, in regard to county, state and national issues. All the attacks which have been made upon the record of the Republican party and on the Republican policy, have been ably answered and in a way that they cannot be gainsaid. It has been proven that the Republican party is a construction party and a progressive party that it has firm convictions on all national issues. It has been demonstrated that it is a party which has not only done something in the past, is now accomplishing something but proposes to continue to do something in the future other than to find fault with the other fellow. It has been shown that it has followed a policy, under which the business of the country has prospered during the last eight years in a way that has never been known under Democratic rule. It is a policy which has secured the largest measure of prosperity to all classes of people in our country. There is no reason for a change now other than the Democratic party desire to try and run the ship of state once more, a ship which came so near being wrecked by Cleveland's last administration.

No one doubts that Bell and Stearns will be elected by a large majority next Tuesday, the only question is how large will that majority be? If every Republican comes to the polls and votes it will be the largest in years, possibly 40,000. It is hoped that every Republican voter will exercise his franchise this year and cast a vote for Bell for the following reasons: First, because Bell is a Republican who desires their support.

Second, because by voting for Bell now you are casting your influence for Roosevelt and Fairbanks in no uncertain manner.

And thirdly, because it will aid your city or town in the councils of the Republican party in the future, as all representation in state and county conventions which makes nominations are based on the governor's vote in the respective towns.

It is now plain that all the candidates on the Republican county ticket will be elected with good majorities, as the fusion movement seems to have fallen flat in nearly every town in the county.

In regard to city representative the Republican party is once more united and it now looks as though Mr. Wells would be elected by an old time majority.

Pape's Letter of Commendation.

The following letter was received by G. H. Pape and Senator Mayo after a banquet tendered to six or eight members of the legislature, and speaks for itself.

Hon. G. H. Pape, Sir:—Through our City Representative Bro. W. H. Lawrence, we learn of your position upon Labor Legislation during the last session of the legislature. Deeply appreciating your services, and being appointed a special committee from the Central Trades and Labor Council of Rutland so to do, we take this opportunity to thank you. The working men as well as the farmers of Vermont begin to realize that their interest should be to get to Montpelier just such men as you would be counted among, who are honest, fearless and sacrificing.

And now we wish for you a happy new year and may the Lord, who provides for us all without distinction, preserve you and return you in 1904 as the unanimous choice of your constituents.

Respectfully
W. P. Jones, Chas. T. McKean, W. H. Hubbard.

Central Trades and Labor Council, American Federation of Labor, Rutland, Vt.

Base Ball Banquet.

At the recent base ball banquet I was abruptly called upon to answer for the "knockers." The press report was very short and conveyed the idea to some, that I stated that the people of Barre did not know the fine points of the game. What I did say, was, that when one considers the makeup of the population of Barre city it was possible that some of the knockers did not know the fine points of the game, for good reasons that were plain to anybody. I was only one of my own reasons and I might be wrong.

Wm. Wisbart.

A Prohibitionist Explanation.

The nominations for justices on the prohibition ticket were made the same as on the other two tickets in consideration of the party being given representation on the board of justices.

Notice.

Having sold my business to M. J. Walker, I shall for a short time have office room at the store for the purpose of collecting my bills. All accounts must be settled by Sept. 25th, as after that date I shall be obliged to leave same with an attorney for collection. J. W. Holton, 159 No. Main street, Hale block.

BURLINGTON ALMOST SURE

Northern League Pen- nant to Go There.

RUTLAND FELL DOWN BAD

Barre Montpelier Was Defeated Again By Plattsburg by the Score of 4 to 3.

Unless the unexpected happens the Northern base ball league pennant will go to Burlington, Manager Whitney's team. The fall down of Rutland before St. Albans yesterday pretty effectually disposes of that team as a pennant possibility. Up to yesterday's game Rutland had a show of tying the city by the lake, but such a result is most unlikely now, as there is little chance for Burlington to lose to Plattsburg in either of the two remaining games between those teams. Even if Rutland should take both her games with Barre-Montpelier today and Monday they would be a little short of first place.

Williams pitched great ball for St. Albans against Rutland yesterday and the team back of Paddy Duff barely escaped a shut out, the score being 4 to 1. O'Brien, who pitched for Rutland, was touched up freely. Barre-Montpelier was defeated by Plattsburg at Plattsburg in a close game by the score of 4 to 3.

Plattsburg won out in the ninth on singles by Bottumus, Shulte, Cosgrove and Davis and an error by Apperiors.

POST-SEASON GAMES.

Series of Three Games To Be Played Between Burlington and Rutland.

The question of which of the leaders in the Northern League is the strongest, Burlington or
